Cissy packs an elaborate wardrobe for an adventurous journey to Italy. Please join her as we travel along in high style. First she dons her exquisite foundation garment - essential to insure a proper fit of the era's fashions. Structured silk satin by Charles James, the American architect of fashion, never looked better in café au lait. Though Cissy's identity will be hidden behind her mask, no one will ever forget her elegant style.