

Workshop Application

Breaking the Mold

Schaumburg, Illinois

Monday, July 19 – Saturday, July 24, 2027

(Please complete one form for each sample submitted and return by December 1, 2026)

Presenter: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Keep in mind the primary purpose of the workshop is to teach a new skill that students can do at home or take to their clubs. Each class is approximately 3 hours. Classes are limited to 25 students.

Title of Workshop: _____

Describe the class in 50 words or less to assist with the write-up in the registration booklet. (Continue on back)

Instructor will provide: _____

Tools that students must bring: _____

*Project skill level (circle one): *Easy Some skill or dexterity required Good working skills on small pieces are required Advanced sewing skills or work with miniatures required.

Minimum number of students: _____ Junior Collectors? Yes/No Cost per student: _____

UFDC will add an additional $35 per student to cover the cost of processing your workshop.

Other convention responsibilities/possible schedule conflicts such as: Dealer, Judge, Cler, Monitor, Speaker, etc.

Number of Samples enclosed _____. All samples will be returned to you. Please include a check for sufficient postage to return your sample. Make return postage check payable to Nancy Percival.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Send completed application and workshop sample(s) to Chairperson:

Nancy Percival, 3940 Sereno Ct., Middleburg, FL 32068-3859

Tel: 904-537-2151, Email: percynk1@yahoo.com

Applications and samples must be received no later than December 1, 2026. Note: Workshop kits are to be all-inclusive. Selling extra items is against UFDC policy. Retain a copy of this form for your records.